

OREGON THESPIANSSM

Improv Rubric

Team Name/Team Number _____ Total Score _____

Mastery	Superior	High	Good	Needs Work	Not Present
Voice	Team projects voice throughout the duration of the scene. Supports voice with breath.	Team Projects voice but has moments when voice is unfocused or drops.	Team can be heard but are not projecting voice.	Voices drop out on occasion. Performers are not in control of their voice.	Team is difficult to hear most of the time.
Making and Accepting Offers	Team continues to make offers and keep the scene going while incorporating new prompts and/or elements seamlessly.	Team continues to make offers and keep the scene going but doesn't fully connect the new prompt and/or elements.	Team struggles to make offers and keep the scene going while incorporating the new prompt and/or elements.	Team can't connect the new prompt and/or elements into the scene but an effort was made to make offers.	Team does not incorporate new prompt and/or elements.
Character	Team has created interesting distinct characters that are maintained throughout the scene. Team does not break character.	Team has created interesting characters but there are the occasional drops in character.	Team has created characters that lack distinction and actors come in and out of character frequently.	Characters are still being developed.	No characters present.
Movement	Movement in the scene is clear interesting and motivated. The blocking contributes to the scene.	The movement in the scene is mostly motivated and contributes to the scene.	Movement is present but not always contributing to the scene.	Movement is unclear and some characters are not moving when they should be.	Actors rarely or never move.
Foundation	Team works with an appropriate story foundation including clearly defined who, what, where and when.	Team works with an appropriate foundation but is missing one of the four requirements.	Team works with an appropriate foundation but is missing two of the four requirements.	There is not a clear foundation of the scene.	No foundation is present.
Points
Total 50	10-9	8-7	6-5	4-3	2-1

Comments: